Entrance to the Charterhouse. Out of the old-fashioned Charterhouse Square not far from Smithfield, the quiet old redbrick buildings of the Charterhouse are enteren by a perpendicular arch under a projecting shelf supported by lions. The Carthusian monastery of the Salutation was founded by Sir Walter Manny in 1371, and the famous school and hospital was opened in 1611. The school was removed to Godalming in 1872 but the bedesmen still live on here.
